Escondido settles ACLU immigrant shelter suit for $550,000

MAY 25, 2017, 5:55 AM | ESCONDIDO

The Escondido City Council agreed Wednesday night to pay $550,000 to the American Civil Liberties Union to settle a lawsuit the group filed over the city's 2014 refusal to approve a shelter for unauthorized immigrant children.

The ACLU alleged the city's actions weren't based on solid land-use criteria, as the law requires, but were motivated by hate and anti-immigrant sentiment in violation of the U.S. Fair Housing Act, which prohibits discrimination based on race, gender or other protected classes.

Overview & objectives

A “living archive”

MY HOME Luz Stanton 1960

My home was where I was born, spent my childhood and created my own family. I am from Colombia, but I moved to U.S.A. in November 2003. I love this country where everyone has many opportunities. It is beautiful and you have a good quality of life, and always feel safe. In 2017, the USA is totally different from what it was like years ago. The population has many immigrants from around the world and a mix of many cultures. My home is Escondido, where I have family and friends. I love the beach, sea, mountains, all the seasons, types of weather, and big celebrations (2nd of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas).

Making it work

- Pitching the program
- Budget considerations/engaging support groups
- Coordination
